

left: bugs still alive in the fridge right: the keylock on my door, with my housekey inside that I didn't have the code for above: contractor telling me he had notified my adjuster about the mold in my fridge after I found the bugs

African violet found in a kitchen box with my spice rack

My 8 year old snake plant was left in the seacan. When I discovered it I removed it from its decorative vase in attempts to save it. It, along with my bamboo plant, were dead after months locked inside of a 35 degree seacan Valet laundered personal clothing and even opened a sealed bag of feminine hygiene pads—while neglecting basic care like the fridge. Shows inconsistency in handling.

items discarded on my lawn, including demo'd items that Valet failed to document.

these are one slipper i found after I saw the other thrown out by valet.

as per the email to the right, they denied throwing anything away.

Good Morning Liz,

In regard to your questions pertaining to the contents: The only contents that were disposed of where your NR's which was only the couch, if you require the documentation from it, please let your adjuster Gary know. I have cc'd Gary in this email so that he is aware.

We did not document any of your contents that were put into the c-can as they were classified as salvageable.

We have scheduled to come out to your place this Wednesday August 20th, 2025 to unload your contents from the c-can into your house. I will also be scheduling to have the c-can picked up after we are done that. I am not sure of the date yet that they will be able to pick it up, but I will send you a quick email so that you know.

If there is anything else that is contents related please just get in touch with me. Hope you have a great rest of your day and we will see you on Wednesday.
